Discuss the following questions with your table.

1. What does credible mean?

2. Why is it important to have credible information when researching?

3. How can you determine whether or not a source is credible?

With the person sitting next to you, examine the examples to see if the source is credible.

Example 1
Is it credible?

Example 2
Is it credible?